Dear Mike,

I hope this email finds you well. I am writing to invite you to take part in a research project I am conducting called “Chinese Cuisine in My Eyes.”

The aim of this survey is to explore different perceptions of Chinese food, especially from individuals with diverse cultural backgrounds like yourself. The survey will cover a range of topics, including your favorite Chinese dishes, your thoughts on the flavors and presentation of Chinese cuisine, and any overall experiences you’ve had with Chinese food. Your participation and honest feedback would be incredibly valuable in providing insightful ideas for my research.

Please be assured that all responses will only be used for research purposes. The survey should take approximately 10 minutes to complete.

Your participation would be greatly appreciated. Looking forward to hearing your thoughts on this fascinating topic.

读后续写

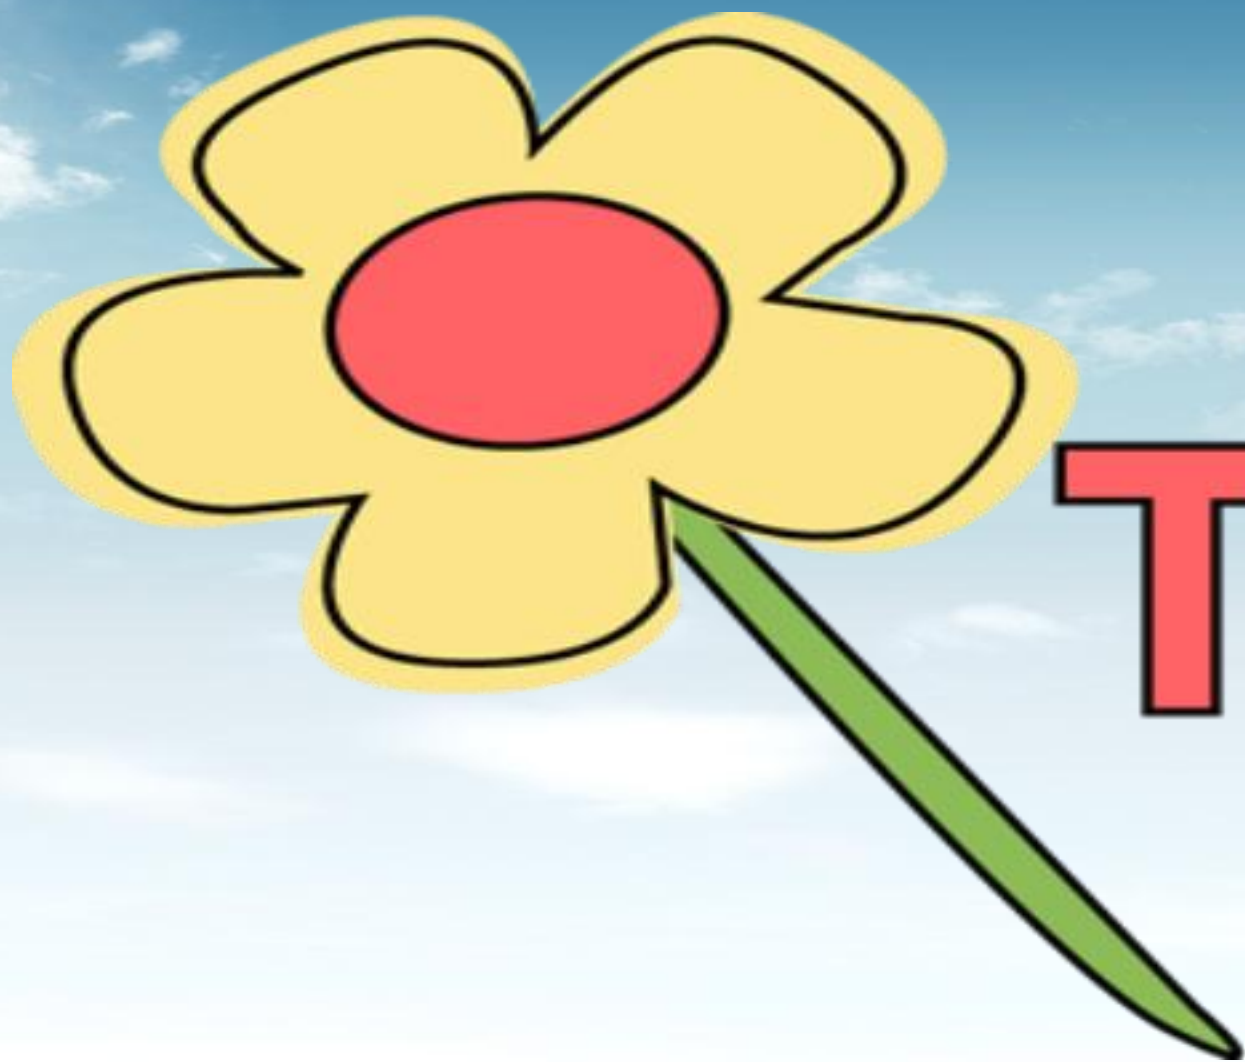

【导语】本文以人物为线索展开，讲述Peter和Isabel经过儿时玩耍的Tubman公园，发现公园破败不堪，垃圾满地，于是决定想办法改变其面貌。在埃文斯夫人的建议下，他们决定向环境保护组织Go Green寻求帮助。

A week later, Peter stood nervously at the back of the hall where Go Green was meeting. Finally, it was time for him to do the presentation. Standing in front of several experts from Go Green, Peter was nervous for fear of screwing things up. But unbelievably, when he began to speak, everything went so smoothly. His voice was clear and influential, and his speech was logical and well-organized. Peter ended his presentation with a deep bow and went out to wait for Go Green's decision.

After the meeting, Isabel excitedly told Peter the good news. Their ideas were approved and Go Green agreed to provide the money they needed to purchase the trash bin. Peter smiled. It meant not only their efforts paid off, but also Tubman park would restore its cleanness and tidiness. Peter and Isabel decided to tell Mrs. Evans this good news first and then worked out the next step they needed to take.

Thank
You
